Honora Finkelstein's novel MAGICIANS offers an answer to how we might most effectively heal the planet. Spearheaded by a teacher-elder and a magical child, a group of people open their minds to possibilities, forming a coalition of earth healers, taking on Congress, and even dealing with crooked politicians and kidnappers as they try to tip the balance of human thought toward a global mind shift.

MAGICIANS strikes the same chord as the classic movie Mr. Smith Goes to Washington. There is an aura about it that communicates the assurance that truth, honesty and caring can win the day . . . even in the halls of Congress, as well as in the hearts of the people. "David Beeman, founder of Doing and Being Books and Dances with the Earth Meditation Project

A splendid book. . . it's superb, magnificent, and will do more for this old world than you can imagine. On second thought, you've already imagined it, and the transformation will come to pass!" John Randolph Price, author of Superbeings, and Jan Price, co-founders of The Quartus Foundation and World Healing Day

An entertaining book to read. What better way to stir up the emotions and fire the imagination to find new ways to shift the world consciousness!" Edward Winchester, founder of the Pentagon Meditation Club

MAGICIANS is a New Age tour de force!" Hannelore Hahn, founder and director of the International Women's Writing Guild

MAGICIANS gives hope for "just folks" to create large changes." Danaan Parry, founder of the Earthstewards Network and author of The Earthstewards Handbook and The Essene Book of Days

MAGICIANS is my dream come true on paper. I loved reading it. This book is profoundly empowering because it shows us graphically how we can co-create "heart to heart" a more loving world." Barbara Carpenter, founder of the Network of Light of Greater Washington, D.C.
